Regina M. Daigre, Executive Pastor
High Hopes Church

I am Dr. Regina M. Daigre. I appreciate you taking the time to visit our web site. Here at High Hopes Church, we believe in Jesus Christ, the head of the church and the manifested word of God. Our passion is to transform lives from the inside out by proclaiming the gospel of hope to people so that hope can be restored; minds can be renewed, people can be set free and taught how to stay free. We will no longer live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. With that being said, let me take a moment to tell you about myself.

In the past, I have served as Executive Director of an inner-city youth ministry called Youth Explosion for more than 11 years, which was founded by Pastor Sean Daigre. We ministered to hundreds of young people and witnessed the power of God in their lives. Later, I worked as a Teaching Ministry Pastor with my husband at a church in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. There I developed curriculum and organized a leadership team to teach foundational principles to new members and new believers. After leaving Baton Rouge, I pursued an assignment that I believe God placed in my heart, which was to complete my doctorate degree.

The dream I had as a child to one day complete the terminal degree manifested in December 2008. I hold a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. This degree is accompanied by a Specialist in Educational Technology from Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana, a Masters in Computer Science and a Bachelor's in Business Education both from Southern University and A&M College in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. I have more than 20 years of experience in secondary and higher education with certifications in business, computer science and educational leadership.

Today, I reside with my family in southern metropolitan Atlanta. As a strategic, pragmatic, diplomatic person, I enjoy making a personal contribution to society with all of the gifts and talents that God has so richly bestowed upon me. This includes using my motivational gifts of teaching, speaking and writing, to reach people in business, education, and ministry. As an educator, I am dedicated to my work by being an innovative leader committed to improving the quality of leadership, teaching, learning and technology skills of humanity. These gifts are developed through much prayer.

Please take a moment to join us for Worship at High Hopes Church. Again, thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to visit our web site. We hope that your life will be enriched through the inspiration of God's word.

Best,

Dr. Regina M. Daigre, Executive Pastor
